August 13 – 17 Middle East Peace Camp

Still looking for a place for your children the week of August 13-17? The Middle East Peace Camp is six years strong and a fun and safe place for Arabs, Jews, and Gentiles to come together in peace and friendship. Even if your kids are busy, we encourage adults to come and visit the camp so you can see this incredible community of great kids and adults!

We still have a few spots in certain camper age groups. Camper ages: 6-12. Sorry, we are over capacity with CITS and Counselors. See attached registration form. Call Susan at 399-1560 if you have questions.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Summer University (Adult Jewish Learning) presents:

The Psalm for Elul: Preparation for the Days of Awe

Wed., Aug. 15, 7-9 p.m.

Location and co-sponsored by: Congregation Beth Shalom (6800 35th Ave. NE., Seattle)

Psalm 27 is traditionally said to help us prepare for the Days of Awe. What are the messages of this psalm? Can they help us prepare for true spiritual cleansing and renewal? Do they show us the path to meaningful t'shuvah (repentance)? Come study this ancient psalm and talk about how to apply its wisdom to our lives.

Cost: Free. Instructor: Beth Huppin. For more info, to register, and to see other course offerings, visit www.JewishinSeattle.org/SummerU.

What's Jewish about Harry Potter?

You don't have to scour Diagon Alley, catch the golden snitch or break out of Azkaban to find out!

Thurs., Aug. 16, 6:00 p.m.

Temple De Hirsch Sinai Seattle Library (1520 E. Union Ave., Seattle)

Meet us in Temple De Hirsch Sinai's Seattle Library as we discover the Jewish influences that abound in the magical world of Harry Potter. Food, talk & Torah! Great for wizards of all ages....

RSVP with TDHS Librarian Toby Harris at (206) 323-8486 or tharris@tdhs-nw.org. For further details visit www.tdhs-nw.org.

Eastside Premiere of Young, Jewish and Left!

Thurs., Aug. 16, 8:00 p.m.

Kirkland Teen Union Building (348 Kirkland Ave., Kirkland)

If you didn't see this film in Seattle, it may be worth the trip across the Lake:

Young, Jewish and Left makes its Eastside debut at the Kirkland Teen Union Building.

The film opens with an exploration of the Israel-Palestine conflict and its effects on the American Jewish community. While Israel and Zionism are major themes of Young, Jewish and Left, the movie goes beyond these issues, providing a fresh and constructive take on race, spirituality, queerness, resistance, justice and liberation.

Many progressive Jews have been marginalized by Jewish institutions with a more conservative stance. Young, Jewish and Left features community organizers, playwrights, artists and rabbis who are building progressive organizations, new rituals, and inclusive communities

Call (425) 822-3088, ext. 202, or visit Kirkland Teen Union Building for more info.

Donations accepted. Short program to follow the film.

For more info about the film, visit www.youngjewishandleft.org.

Study Buddy Literacy Tutoring Program

Making a Difference, One Child at a Time

Study Buddy is a social justice program sponsored by the Jewish Education Council of the Jewish Federation of Greater Seattle. The program matches volunteers with children in grades K-8 who need academic support. We recruit, train, and place tutors in schools and provide on-going support to them. For many students, this opportunity to meet regularly with a knowledgeable, caring, and committed adult is the greatest part of the program. Commitment is one hour per week, and before- and after-school hours are available. For more info contact Starr at starr@jewishinseattle.org or (206) 774-2279.
