Kadima Summer Evening Picnic by the Lake!

Sunday, August 26, 5:00 - 8:00 p.m.

Magnuson Park Picnic Shelter #1 (Seattle)

Join us! Enjoy a little potluck supper and find out what everybody is has been up to this summer while the children play on the lawn.

Bring your voice and an instrument! We've dusted off the Kadima Songbook for a sing-along!

Feel free to bring a friend!

Potluck (bring a dish for 15 people).

There will be a facility for BBQ, if you desire.

Kadima will provide dishes, napkins and beverages, briquettes, BBQ starter, & matches

To access Shelter #1 turn off Sandpoint Way at 65th Street. Then follow the directional signs.

Shelter #1 is where Susan Davis' farewell party was held. At the south end of the park, near the boat launch. A map of the park is attached.

July 8: Perfect Potluck Picnic!

Twenty-five or more people came to Magnuson Park on Sunday, July 8, for the first of two Kadima Sunday evening picnics.

The warm sun and cool breeze were ideal for picnicking. Many Kadima "alum" were there, and they obviously enjoyed their reunion with other Kadimaniks, former and present. Picnic fare was plentiful: food: salads, breads, cheeses, crackers, Fritos, vegetables, fruits, and other tasty fare. Several revelers brought food to grill. The only thing missing was cake (we realized after dinner).

The older children played on the hill and by the shore, occasionally stopping to take nutrition. The very entertaining toddler ably poured water from a bottle into a cup, and seemed to enjoy the company of elders. There was plenty of laughter throughout the evening.

The old Kadima songbooks were there, but people seemed happy just schmoozing and eating. At one point, however, a spontaneous a cappella duet burst into the atmosphere, which suggests that at the next picnic we pop a sing-along into the festivities.

If you're wishing you'd been there – never fear! Kadima is hosting another Picnic at the Park on Sunday, August 26. It will go from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. It will be at Magnuson Park Shelter #1 (where Susan Davis' farewell party was held.) Plan to come! Bring good food, an instrument or just your voice, and please feel free to bring a friend!

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Crime and Punishment

presented by Theater Under Ground and Capitol Hill Arts Center

Now through July 27

Friday - Sunday 7:30 p.m.

Capitol Hill Arts Center Lower Level (1621 12th Ave., Seattle: down the ramp!)

Kadima members Carla and Richard Ginnis saw Crime and Punishment, and reported that it is very good.

When a pawnbroker and her sister are murdered the motive appears to be money, but Inspector Porfiry is seduced by a more psychological explanation. With no evidence left at the crime scene, the killer is poised to get away with the perfect crime. This award-winning adaptation is a 90-minute meditation on faith and redemption set against the themes of the well-loved literary masterpiece by Fyodor Dostoyevsky. Performed by only three actors playing multiple roles, it's a tour-de-force acting spectacle of story-driven narrative.

Study Buddy Literacy Tutoring Program

Making a Difference, One Child at a Time

Study Buddy is a social justice program sponsored by the Jewish Education Council of the Jewish Federation of Greater Seattle. The program matches volunteers with children in grades K-8 who need academic support. We recruit, train, and place tutors in schools and provide on-going support to them. For many students, this opportunity to meet regularly with a knowledgeable, caring, and committed adult is the greatest part of the program. Commitment is one hour per week, and before- and after-school hours are available. For more info contact Starr at starr@jewishinseattle.org or (206) 774-2279.
