July 25, 2007
www.kadima.org

Midsummer Shabbat Service
This Saturday, July 28, 10:00 a.m.
Prospect Church
1919 East Prospect, Seattle

Several of our Kadima young people who are back from college for the summer are organizing this Shabbat morning service for the community at the Prospect Church (our usual High Holy Days venue). The service will include all the usual modes of participation in Hebrew and English except a reading from a Sefer Torah. There may be a Torah reading in English and Torah discussion. There will be an Oneg Shabbat afterwards.

To help us plan, please reply to this Update if you know, as you read this, that you'll be there. RSVPs are not necessary -- if you decide on Saturday morning that you're coming -- please come! There will be ample food. All Kadima members and friends are welcome at the service. We hope to see you on Shabbat Morning. (Again, please don't worry about RSVPs; they aren't necessary.)

SHABBAT SERVICE

Saturday, July 28, 10:00 a.m.

Midsummer Saturday Shabbat Service, 10:00 a.m.

Prospect Church (1919 East Prospect, Seattle)

Several of our Kadima young people who are home from college for the summer are organizing this Shabbat morning service for the community at the Prospect Church (our usual High Holy Days venue). The service will include all the usual modes of participation in Hebrew and English except a reading from a Sefer Torah. There may be a Torah reading in English and Torah discussion. KADIMA EVENTS

August 13 – 17

Middle East Peace Camp

Still looking for a place for your children the week of August 13-17? The Middle East Peace Camp is six years strong and a fun and safe place for Arabs, Jews, and Gentiles to come together in peace and friendship. Even if your kids are busy, we encourage adults to come and visit the camp so you can see this incredible community of great kids and adults!

We still have a few spots in certain camper age groups. Camper ages: 6-12. Sorry, we are over capacity with CITS and Counselors. See attached registration form. Call Susan at 399-1560 if you have questions.

Saturday, August 18, 7:05 p.m.

Mariners vs. Chicago White Sox

The Mariners salute Kadima!

Ticket sales are closed, but if you're at the game, come up and visit (aisle 316, row 4), and keep your eye on the ball -- I mean, the message board!

Jewish Community Festival:
Celebrating all things Jewish!

Sunday, August 19, 11 a.m. to 7 p.m., Bellevue Downtown Park (10201 NE 4th St.)

Free and open to the public

The Festival is a one-day celebration of Jewish culture. Kadima will have a booth focused on the Women's Torah Project. Volunteers are needed to work in the booth and for other jobs as well.

Please contact Denise Sterchi (Blurchi@nwlinc.com) or (206-524-6191) or Carla Ginnis (ginnifam@ix.netcom.com) if you'd like to help out.

The Festival will offer something for everyone:

One-mile Walk in Support of Israel

Live music

Fabulous food

Children's activities

Dance

The second...

Kadima Summer Evening Picnic by the Lake!

Sunday, August 26, 5:00 - 8:00 p.m.

Magnuson Park Picnic Shelter #1 (Seattle)

Join us!

Enjoy a potluck supper and find out what everybody has been up to this summer while the children play. Bring your voice and an instrument! We've dusted off the Kadima Songbook for a sing-along!

Feel free to bring a friend!

Potluck (bring a dish for 15 people).

There will be a facility for BBQ, if you desire.

Kadima will provide dishes, napkins and beverages, briquettes, BBQ starter, & matches

To access Shelter #1 turn off Sandpoint Way at 65th Street. Then follow the directional signs.

Shelter #1 is where Susan Davis' farewell party was held. At the south-end of the park, near the boat launch.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Crime and Punishment

presented by Theater Under Ground and Capitol Hill Arts Center

7:30 p.m. / Closing July 27

Capitol Hill Arts Center Lower Level (1621 12th Ave., Seattle: down the ramp!)

When a pawnbroker and her sister are murdered the motive appears to be money, but Inspector Porfiry is seduced by a more psychological explanation. With no evidence left at the crime scene, the killer is poised to get away with the perfect crime. This award-winning adaptation is a 90-minute meditation on faith and redemption set against the themes of the well-loved literary masterpiece by Fyodor Dostoyevsky. Performed by only three actors playing multiple roles, it’s a tour-de-force acting spectacle of story-driven narrative.

Advance tickets: www.brownpapertickets.com. Info: Capitol Hill Arts Center.com.

Study Buddy Literacy Tutoring Program

Making a Difference, One Child at a Time

Study Buddy is a social justice program sponsored by the Jewish Education Council of the Jewish Federation of Greater Seattle. The program matches volunteers with children in grades K-8 who need academic support. We recruit, train, and place tutors in schools and provide on-going support to them. For many students, this opportunity to meet regularly with a knowledgeable, caring, and committed adult is the greatest part of the program. Commitment is one hour per week, and before- and after-school hours are available. For more info contact Starr at starrn@jewishinseattle.org or (206) 774-2279.
