RSVP NOW! Download a registration form:

<http://www.kadima.org/download/Kadima%20Seder%202009.pdf>, and return it to Kadima, 23266 Eastlake Ave East, Suite 424, Seattle WA 98102, or

RSVP NOW! Contact office@kadima.org / (206) 547-3914 (see below for the info needed to complete your RSVP).

VOLUNTEER NOW! Contact office@kadima.org / (206) 547-3914.

A TASTY MEAL CATERED BY YOUR KADIMA COMRADES! Expect chicken soup or a vegetarian soup with knaidlach, roast chicken, savory potatoes, vegetables and a fruit dessert. Vegetarians won't go hungry! If you love to cook and want to help, please contact us!

KADIMA IS COOPERATIVE: VOLUNTEERS RULE! All fees are meant to cover the costs of rentals, ritual foods, child care if needed, printing and more. Volunteers are absolutely essential to the success of a community Seder. Please indicate how you can help! Please note that we will be stewards of the earth and will be washing our dishes rather than sending them to the dump. Volunteers to bus dishes and use the dishwasher are needed and appreciated!

KADIMA IS INCLUSIVE, REGARDLESS OF INCOME: All fees are meant to cover the costs of rentals, the catered meal, ritual foods, child care if needed, printing and more. If you need to pay less than the above costs due to income limitations, we have a moderate quantity of scholarship funds. If you can pay more and indicate that it's to help others, that's a mitzvah!

WHAT ABOUT CHILD CARE? We will provide child care for the non-meal segments of the evening based on demand. Child care will be provided to those who have reserved it and is meant for young children who cannot sit through the Seder. In/out privileges!

RSVP DEADLINES. Yes, we know the deadline is at the stroke of midnight at day's end April 6. HOWEVER: The earlier you reserve your spot, the easier it is for us to calculate food purchases and other budget items. Please try to RSVP early and often -- and tell your friends!

WHAT SORT OF SEDER IS THIS? THE KADIMA HAGGADAH represents many years of evolution as a progressive Jewish community. It respects tradition while making the story of Passover accessible and meaningful for modern Jews who want and need inspiration as workers for a just and peaceful world. Interweaving song, inspiration from our own and others' histories of standing up for justice, appreciation of the crucial role of women in our liberation, and commitment to a just, viable peace for Israelis and Palestinians, a Kadima Seder is refreshing relevant and empowering.

INTERNET-SAVVY VOLUNTEER NEEDED FOR ONE-TIME PROJECT!

Looking for an eBay-savvy Kadimanik to help with an art auction to support the Women's Torah Project. This is a one-time, short-term commitment where you can play on eBay and fulfill some of your volunteer hours for Kadima. Please contact Wendy Graff at wendyg@seanet.com to find out more.

TURN OFF YOUR LIGHTS DURING EARTH HOUR

Saturday, March 28, 8:30-9:30 pm

Started in 2007 in Australia by the World Wildlife Federation, Earth Hour is a "symbolic stance against global warming." This year nearly 1200 cities in 80 countries have signed up to shut off some lights. In Seattle the Fairmont Olympic hotel will host a candlelight dinner in its luxury Georgian restaurant. Details about Earth Hour: www.voteearth2009.org.

THE PJ LIBRARY: AN EARLY START TO BUILDING A JEWISH FUTURE

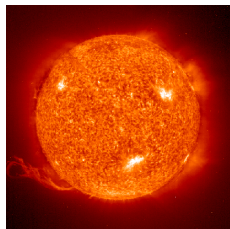

Help kick off this new program by joining us at The PJ Library Storytime. Sunday, April 5 at 10 am at Mockingbird Books (7220 Woodlawn Avenue NE, Seattle -- a few blocks from Green Lake). Wear your pajamas and come for bagels, story time and to make new friends!

PJ Library is a joint effort being launched by the JFS, local philanthropists and The Harold Grinspoon Foundation to provide Jewish content books or music on a monthly basis to Seattle area families with children ages 6 months to 5-1/2 years. The subscription is free for 2 years. The PJ Library is available in more than 100 communities and Seattle is one of the newest cities to have this opportunity.

When you sign up for The PJ Library (PJ -- pajamas!), the PJ Library will send you a FREE, high-quality book or CD each month. Regardless of your level of observance or affiliation, the gift of stories and song is sure to enrich your entire family's Jewish journey. Book topics include holidays, traditions, family values, Jewish identity and Jewish heroes. The books are carefully selected by top national Jewish educators, with an eye on books that are joyful, highly engaging, and representative of the best Jewish children's literature available.

Space is limited, so register today:

IT HAPPENS ONLY ONCE EVERY 28 YEARS! BIRKAT HaHAMMAH - BLESSING THE SUN WEDNESDAY APRIL 8

The year 5769 (2008-2009) will be the little known Jewish year of "Birkat HaHammah" the "blessing of the sun." Every 28 years, the ancient rabbis demarked a time in the Jewish calendar that celebrates the ceremonial return of the sun to its original place in the cosmos during Creation.

Here are some links to info about Birkat HaHammah, in case you want to mark this rare event during the day of April 8 (Passover begins at sundown on April 8):
