

SHUSHAN PURIM CELEBRATION

Once upon a time, in a distant land, the Jews of Shushan, the royal city of the Persian Empire, defended themselves from their oppressors one day longer than their fellows. They rewarded themselves with an extra day of Purim festivities: Shushan Purim! Now YOU can join them in joyousness! RSVP NOW

SATURDAY, MARCH 22, 5:30 PM

Youngstown Cultural Arts Center
4408 Delridge Way SW, Seattle
DIRECTIONS BELOW

SPACE IS LIMITED: only the first 50 RSVPs can join the festivities!

$5 adults; kids and teens free;
open to all regardless of income
RSVP NOW or (206) 547-3914 ext. 2

PURIMSHPIEL

a goofy, enthralling, silly tale of liberation and feisty women!

“GILANA” THE BELLY DANCER

sharing Gypsy Style Mid East Dance- and teaching YOU some moves!

(Many of you will remember her from our February 29 "FunRaiser" celebration.)

PERSIAN AND MID EAST POTLUCK

vegetarian, dairy or fish: learn some Iranian Recipes

HAVDALAH

fire and spice heralding our hopes for a world made whole

BRING YOUR OWN BOTTLE

rejoicing in the noble Purim tradition of a bissel wine or schnapps!

The Youngstown Cultural Arts Center is a hoppin', hip 'n happenin' place, so easy to find:

DRIVING & BUS DIRECTIONS

RSVP NOW or (206) 547-3914 ext. 2

A TRULY VERSHIMELT PRODUCTION
INSPIRED AND DIRECTED BY THE MAGGID OF SHMATTES, purveyor of the wisdom of the Dumwamisher Talmud, Tractate Meshugney Kadima
FOR MORE INFORMATION:

RSVP NOW or (206) 547-3914 ext. 2